EASLEY REAPPOINTS DAUGHERTY TO RICHMOND COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD

RALEIGH — Gov. Mike Easley reappointed Nancy DeWitt Daugherty of Ellerbe to the Richmond Community College Board of Trustees.

Daugherty has been president of L.G. DeWitt Carrier Corporation since 1992. Her community involvement includes being a member of the board of directors for the Rankin Museum and for the Richmond Community College Foundation. Daugherty has also served as secretary of the North Carolina Motor Speedway Corporation. She received the 1996 Entrepreneur of the Year Award from the George S. May International Company. Daugherty received a degree in English from Queens College in Charlotte.

The duties of the Richmond Community College Board of Trustees are: to elect a president to the institution; to employ all other personnel to the community college; to purchase land that is necessary for the operation of the college; to apply the standards for admission and graduation of the students of the institution; to receive and accept donations given to the community college; and to provide all or part of the instructional services for the institution. The board consists of 15 members who serve four-year terms. The Governor appoints four members.
